

CRIME STOPPERS TASMANIA ANNOUNCES NEW BOARD CHAIR

Under the direction of its new Chairman, Crime Stoppers is focusing on its mission to encourage even more Tasmanian's to anonymously report big or small information on crime.

Crime Stoppers Tasmania recently elected new Chairman, Mr David Daniels OAM, to its volunteer board.

A board member since 1994, Mr Daniels has played an instrumental role at Crime Stoppers Tasmania from its inception.

Mr Daniels said "I am extremely proud of the contribution that Crime Stoppers plays towards community safety, and am very honoured to hold the role of Crime Stoppers Chair".

"Our Crime Stoppers vision is for a safer Tasmania and our team has run many successful campaigns and projects over recent years with the support of our Chief Executive Officer, Ron Franks. I look forward to our continued success and am grateful for the board's vote of confidence in me." Mr Daniels said.

For the past 23 years David has held many fundamental roles within Crime Stoppers Tasmania, including Chair, Deputy Chair, Marketing Chair and Tasmanian delegate on the board of Crime Stoppers Australia.

In 2017 Mr Daniels was announced as Crime Stoppers International's Civilian of the Year, in recognition of selfless devotion, persistent service and the significant contribution that he has given to Crime Stoppers.

Crime Stoppers' relevance continues to grow, providing community members with an anonymous means of reporting information about crime either by phone or online.

Crime Stoppers Tasmania would like to acknowledge and thank outgoing Chair, Amanda Castray for her leadership and dedication to the role. Ms Castray vacated the role due to relocating to the United Kingdom.

Crime Stoppers Board member, Ms Lynn Mason has been elected to Deputy Chair.

Background - Crime Stoppers Tasmania

Crime Stoppers was introduced to Tasmania over twenty-three years ago. It operates as an independent non-profit, community organisation that supports crime solving through providing anonymous mechanisms for reporting information about crime by phone or online. It is part of an international program that has been in existence for over forty years.

The mission of Crime Stoppers Tasmania is to be the trusted voice for a safer Tasmania by empowering and inspiring Tasmanians to anonymously report information about crime. Crime Stoppers encourages all Tasmanians to play their part in creating safe and strong communities.
